About the Instructor

Deacon Steve Smith

Deacon Steve Smith was born and raised on a small farm 10 miles north of Rochester, Michigan. He was baptized, attended grade school, and was confirmed at St. John Lutheran in Rochester, and graduated from Lutheran High North

High School. Steve met his wife Gloria while they were in high school, and they have been married for 28 years and have four children.

On Good Friday 2003, Jesus changed Steve's life in a very personal way, and the love of Christ compels him to share the Gospel and help others to do the same.

Heart of the Shepherd Praise Team, HOTSPraise, will be performing at the workshop.

HOTSPraise is "a volunteer group organized to assist Pastors and other leaders in worship services; focusing on the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ. ... not limited to singing, playing instruments, reading scripture, dance, drama, plus multimedia assistance."

"We firmly believe that there can be no higher use of God's gifts than to use them in the public worship of Him."

Schedule

9:00 - Noon

Learn techniques, skills and answers to questions posed in our post modern society. Explore a variety of vital listening principles and ways to start and engage in the conversations and hear examples of interactive witnessing.

Noon - 1:30

Participants will have the opportunity to practice what they learned in class by having lunch at a nearby mall or shopping area.

1:30 - 3:00

Open floor time to discuss the experiences which people had while witnessing during lunch or other activities as well as guidance and direction.

This day is designed to be a personal experience for you as you grow closer to Jesus who inspires you to share Him with others in everyday life.

Compelled by Love

Learn and discuss with peers how to better detect and be open to opportunities God places before us to share his love and Gospel.

Participate in a practical application of what was learned in class.

Also learn about:

- Conversation starters
- Listening principles
- Teaching techniques
- Interactive witnessing examples
